Summer . . .

A time for doing what you really want to do . . . your time. Summer football practice, vacations, swimming, working in peaches, killing time at the freeze, or just plain cooling it is all part of the summer scene.

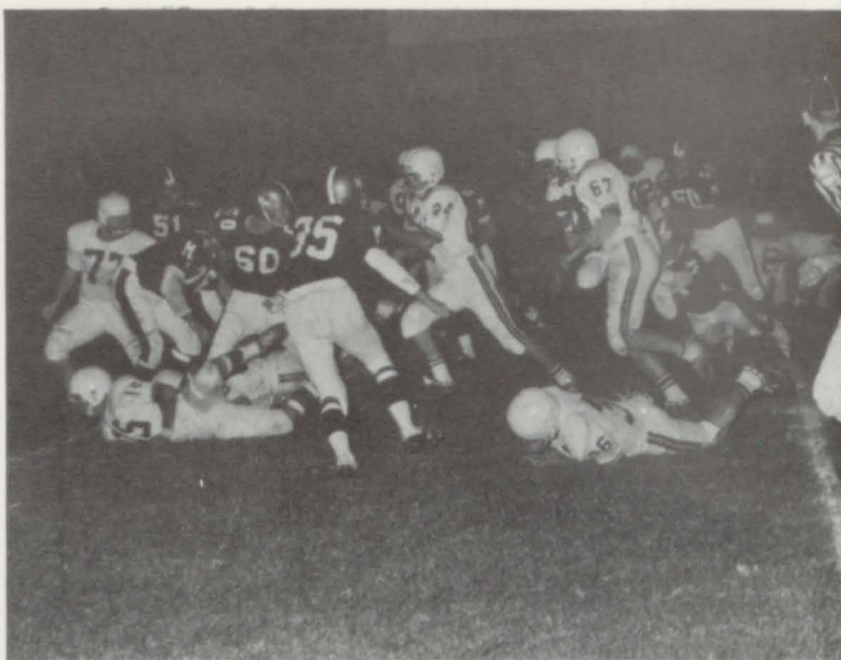

Fall . . .

The grind of school is started by roll calls in first period classes. As we try to adjust after three months freedom. The daily volleyball game breaks the monotony of the classes. The teachers watch a pep rally from across the gym. The Halloween carnival is a great way to raise money. Some groups'll try anything.

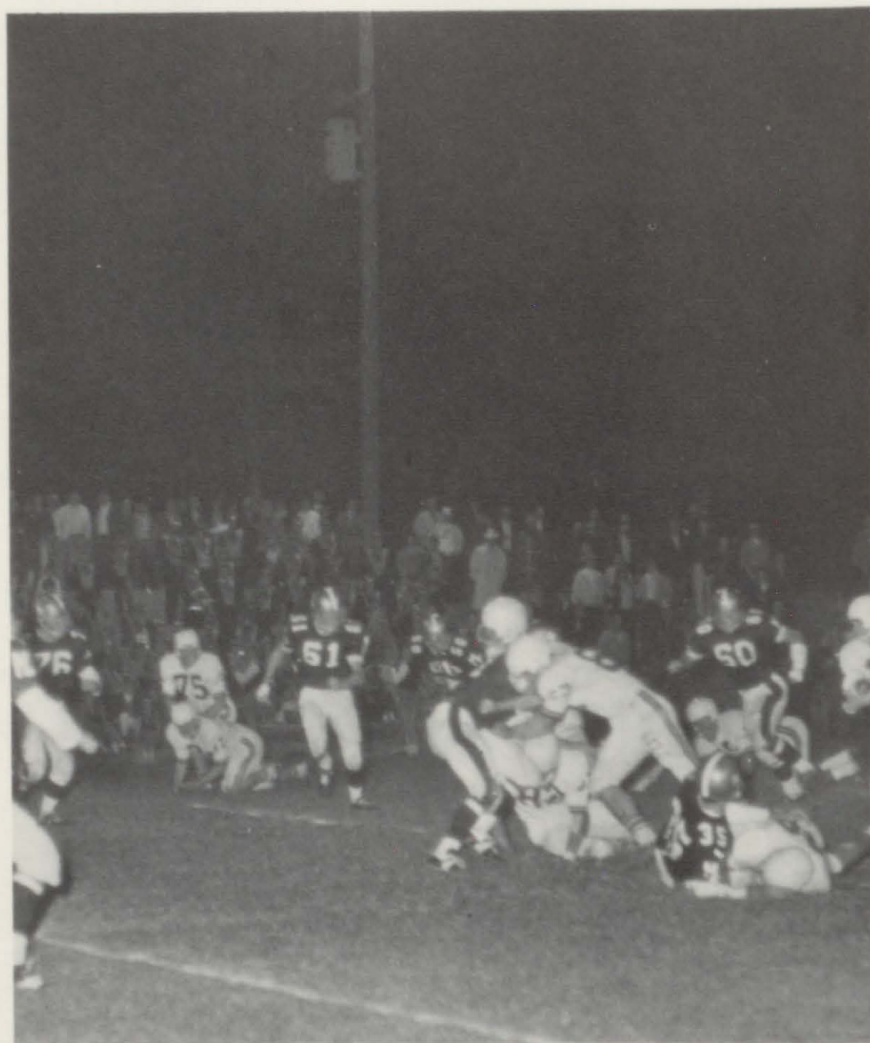

Work on floats for the homecoming parade starts a week before the big day; the fever mounts. At last the parade is ready to start. All the work is over; it is a time of presentment. The big wave rolls to a H.C. victory over a great team. Then all is climaxed by the crowning of our Homecoming Queen. The past week's work doesn't seem wasted at all.

Winter . . .

The school has really settled down to business by now. We elected our Miss Vallihi at the annual Vallihi contest; Posey and Goddard provided extra entertainment. Football season ended on a winning note against GMC. Mid-terms showed our shortcomings in our study habits. Basketball has replaced football as our sport to support.

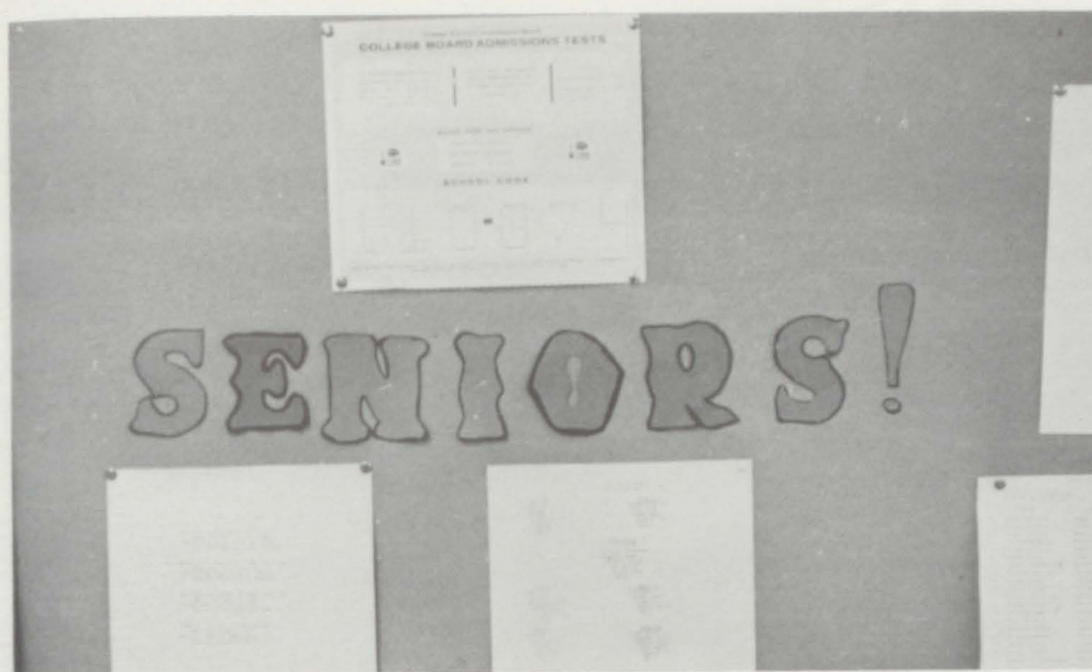

Spring . . .

Mrs. Cleveland helps the Seniors prepare for life outside FVHS. Who'll ever forget Hamlet? The sap may start to rise in some of the Seniors, but a quick call to the office generally brings it down. Now, it's hard to get a place on the volleyball court; everyone's playing. What can we say about spring football practice that the players haven't already said? The clubs really get active with the warm weather. The poor seniors realize that their year in the sun is about over and start to taking nostalgic looks back at their years at FVHS.

Dedication . . .

- • • We dedicate the 1970 Vallihi to Miss Sarah Lowe, valued as a great teacher, appreciated as a wise counselor, admired for her sense of humor, loved as a true friend.

ADMINISTRATION

The Educators

To the Senior Class of 1970:

"The yesterdays and todays are but blocks with which to build the future."

It is my privilege to offer congratulations to the Class of 1970 upon your graduation from Fort Valley High School. With it are my best wishes for your happiness and success. An institution is known by its product, and there are many in this class who have shown unselfish service and devotion to your school and have achieved in many areas of school life.

During your years here you have witnessed and been a part of many changes. I am grateful for your assistance and support during these changing times. As you enter the seventies you will be challenged by many future changes. I trust your sojourn here has equipped you to keep your minds open for the truth and that your endeavors may be fruitful and your service to mankind bring honor to yourselves and to your creator.

Sincerely,

Ernest R. Anderson

Homecoming '70

Homecoming is a touching time for all, especially the Seniors. It is a time of happiness and sadness, fun and work. Homecoming is really your own thing, you make it what it is or isn't.

This year's was topped off by the finest parade ever, and the Big Green Machine came through in the closing minutes with a great 32-29 win over Wilkinson County. Not to Forget our Tearful queen, Anne Lane, and her glorious court.

Homecoming is but a fleeting moment in a school year's life, but though it be fleeting it isn't forgotten.

Above Left: The loyal ones put up the signs even during float building time.

Top: Seniors take a break from working on their also-ran float.

Bottom: Ace sign painters, Steve Luce and Terry Hayes, get one ready.

Upper Left: Time and work go into the decoration of the halls in hope of winning the spirit stick.

In Memory Of George Clark Walton

Clark, as he was known, will be in the hearts of the students at F.V.H.S. forever. He will be remembered by the faculty as well as by the students for his happy-go-lucky attitude, a trademark that he carried proudly. We can't think of F.V.H.S. without thinking about the part of our school that was Clark Walton. A part that will be dearly missed.

The fighting Fort Valley Green of '69-'70 showing the poise and stamina lacking from last year's team completed a very successful and exciting season. Through ups and downs they maintained the type of determined character that only winners know, and this led to a thrilling 7-3 record. Credit is due to the guidance of the coaches, leadership of the seniors, and the uncommon maturity of the underclassmen.

Back: Donnie Vinning, Roger Sims, Tom Tucker, John Turner, Don Doles, Bobby Evans, Randy Bryan, Lee Duke, Tom Bennett, Charles Crawley, Steve Johnson.
Middle: Tommy Duncan, Larry Crutchfield, Leon Collins, Harold Morse, Ricky Parks, Al DeGraw, Bobby Murray, Ernest Greene, Glin Mabry, Scott Posey, Ken Byrd.
Front: Davy McMinn, Jeff Bennett, Richard Liipfert, Paul Bowden, Richard Knight, Barney Barfield, Billy Lavender, Jeff Faircloth, Chip McMinn, Tim Mathews, Jim Joiner, Durwood Jannings, Ken Faircloth.

Waves Nip Blue Devils 13-12

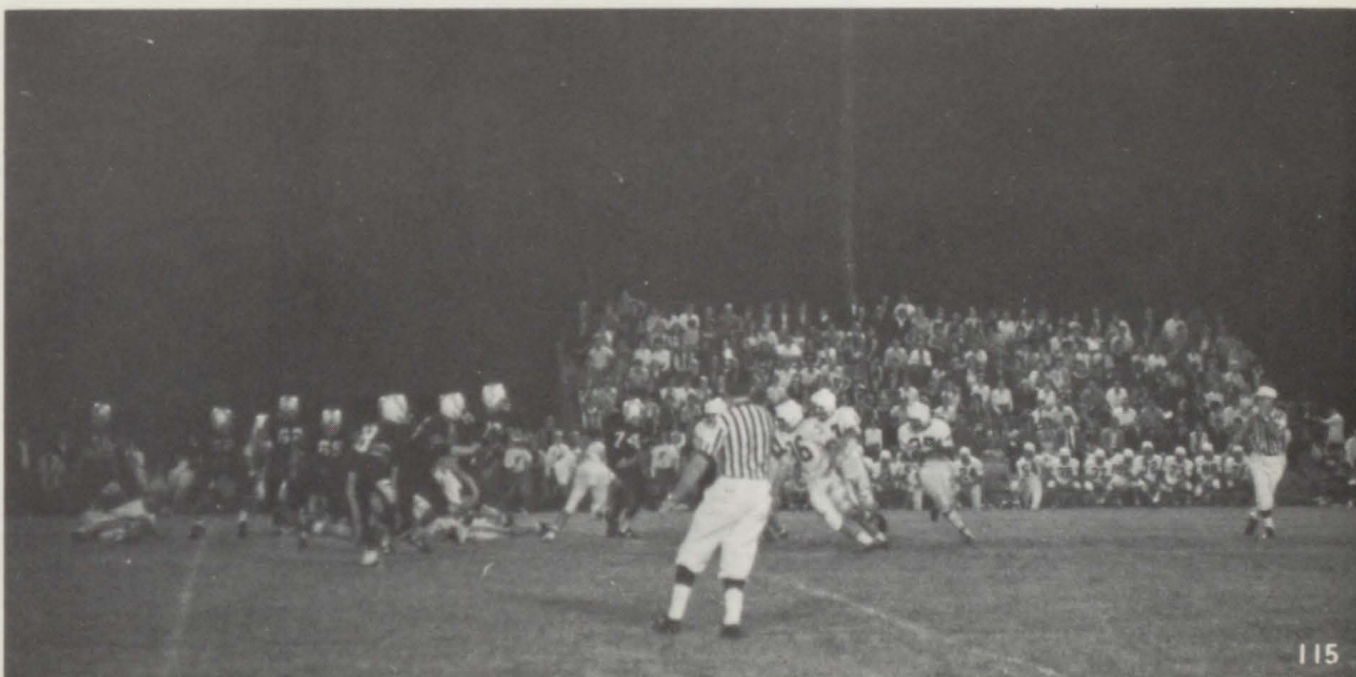

The Wave offense and defense put it all together against Manchester for one of their best efforts of the year. This marked the first win over the Blue Devils since the state champs did it in '61. The Waves were off and rolling to a successful season with the sweet taste of revenge.

Bottom: Harold picks up first down behind Evans and Barfield.

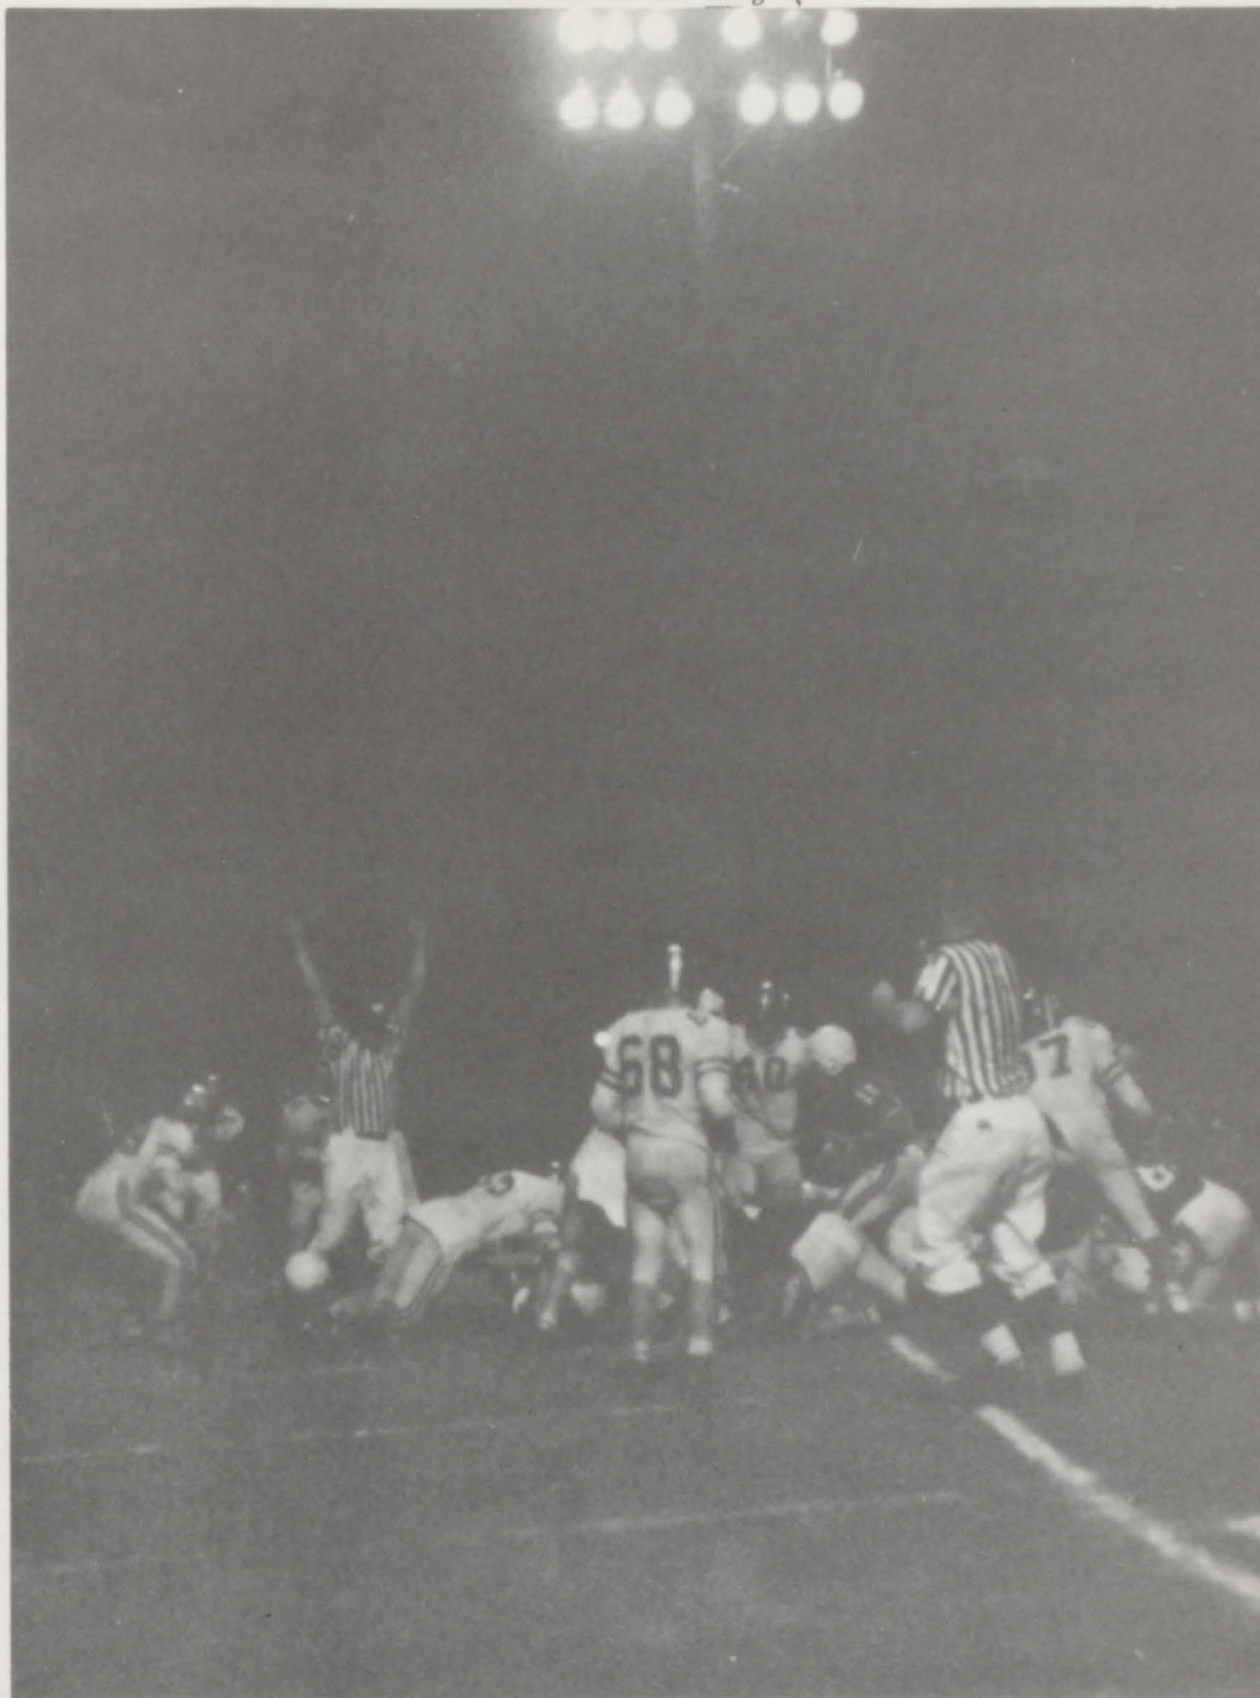

Waves Shut Out Johnson Co.

The green machine went into high gear against poor Johnson Co. The combined efforts of a driving offense and a determined defense helped to earn the Waves new respect from their future opponents.

Greenies Ramble 23-8

Behind 8-7 at the half, the Waves got cranked off at the start of the third quarter and buried East Laurens.

Green Machine Outlasts Macon Co. 7-0

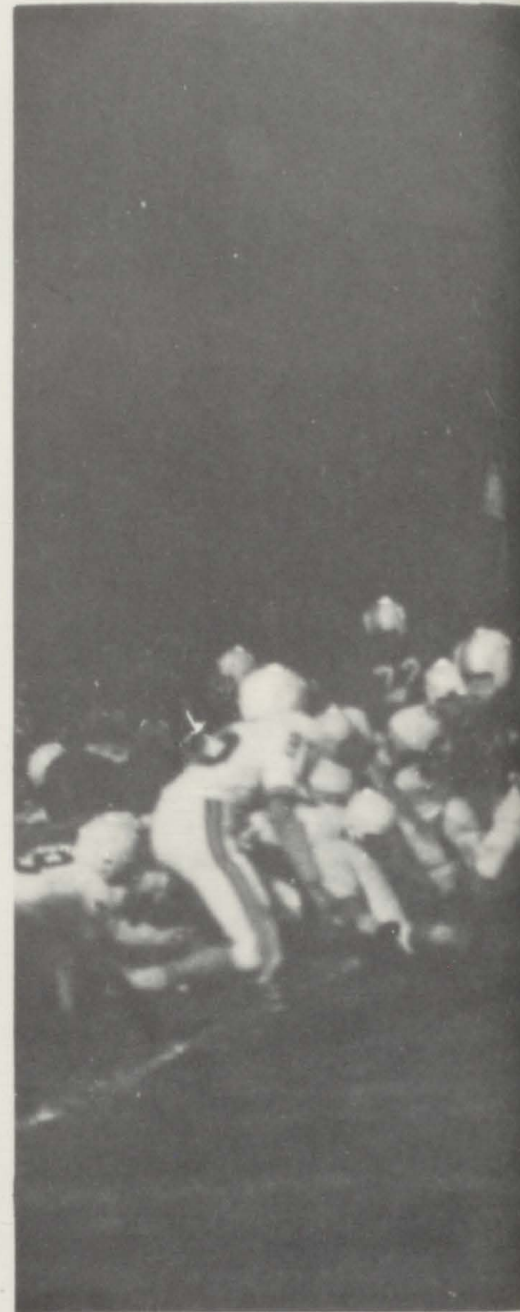

The second shut-out of the year put the Waves in the top ten in class B. The Waves won the great defensive battle. The winning drive came on an inspired drive in the fourth quarter.

Hawkinsville Kills 10-0 Hopes 19-7

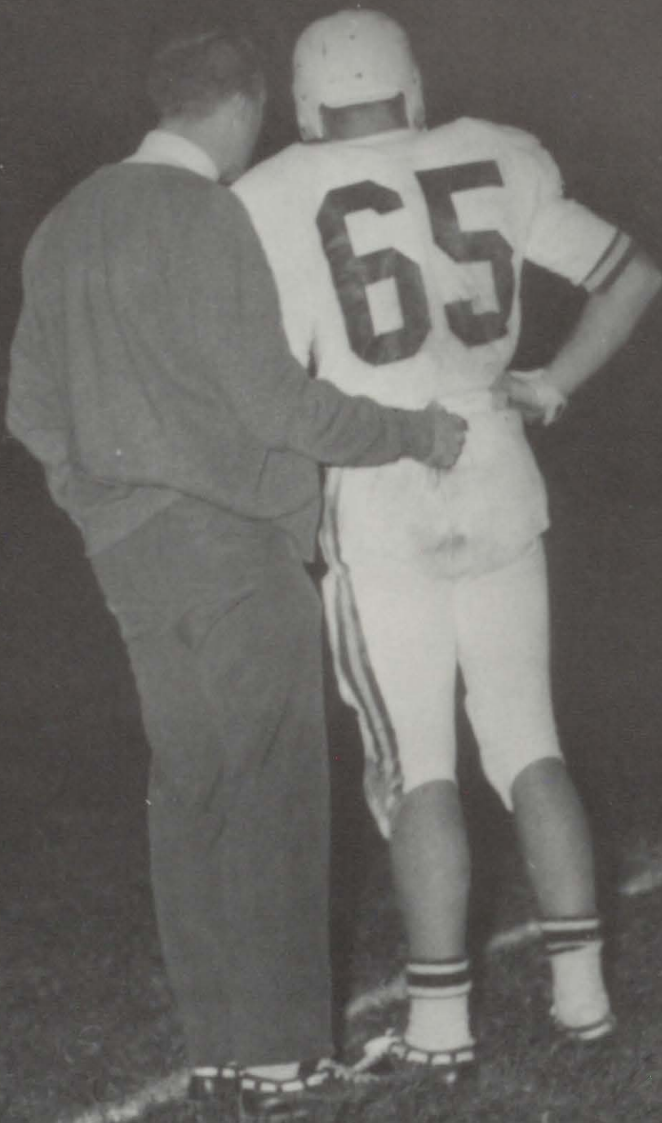

Hawkinsville capitalizing on blocked punts clinched the sub-region title of 4-B West from Fort Valley. The offense just didn't get fired up, pushing over only one TD all night.

Below: Wave defense closes in on Hawkinsville runner.

Left: Coach Barnes sends in defensive play for Waves at crucial moment.

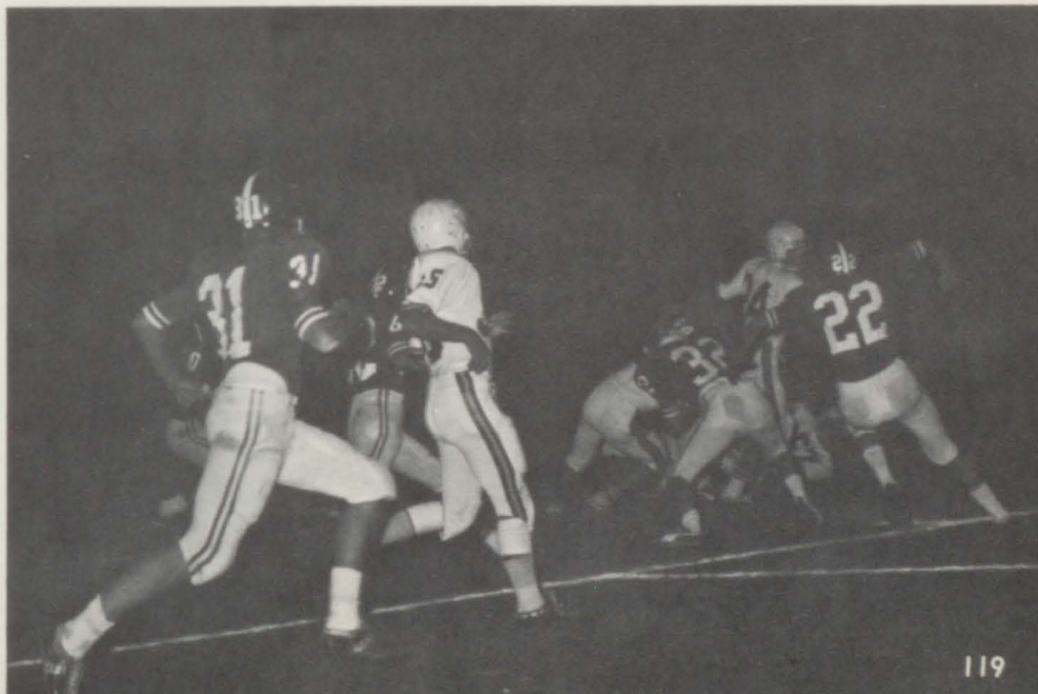

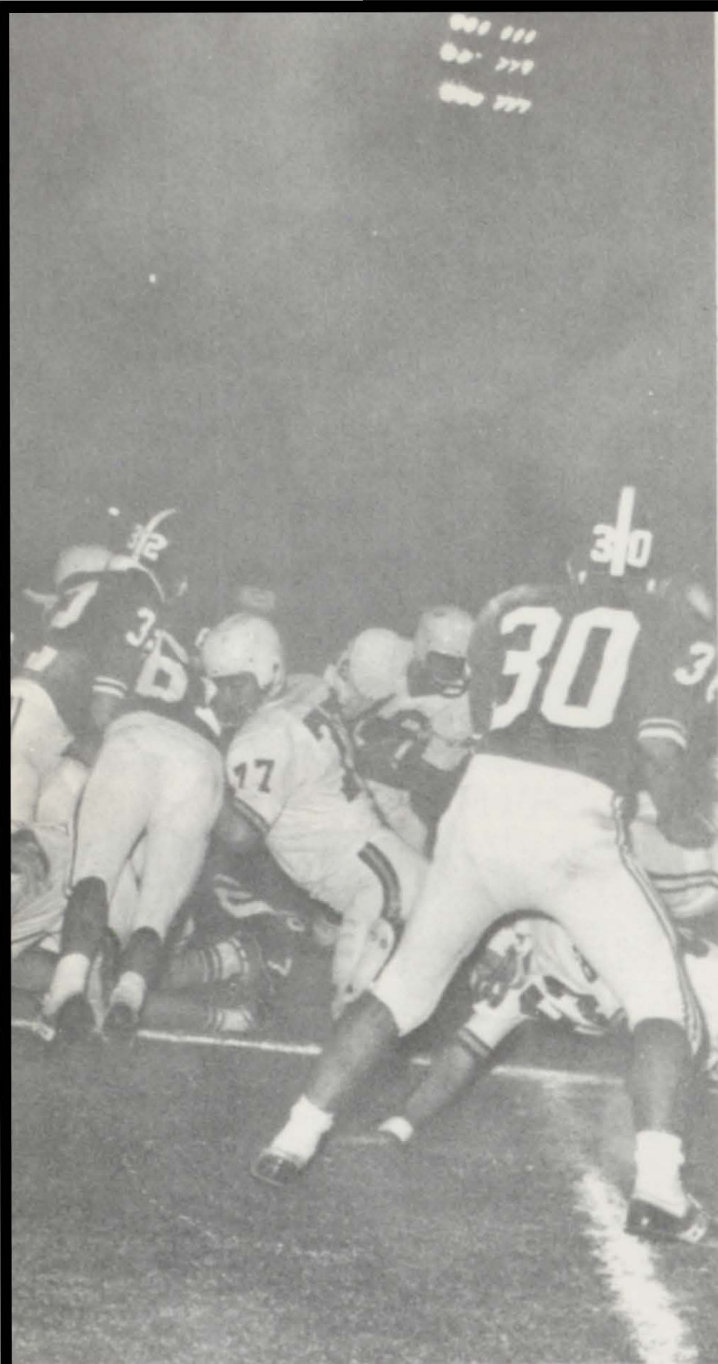

Waves Bring It Home 32-29

In front of a tremendous partisan crowd the Wave offense bounced back and outscored a good Wilkinson Co. team. The game was Waves' greatest effort of the season.

Above: Waves attempt to block Wilco's extra point.
Bottom: Ernest stopped shy of goal line by tough Wilco defense.

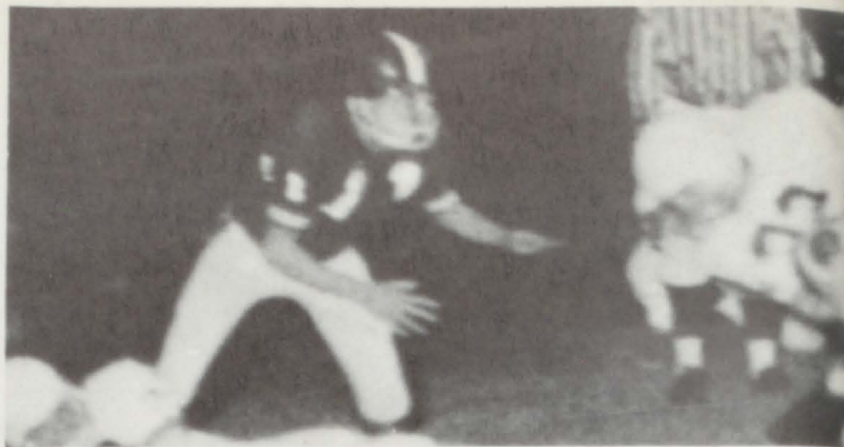

Fort Valley Loses On Road 28-0

The Waves felt the power of a great Mary Persons team that could do it all. Our boys put up a gallant effort but were just out-manned.

Above: Al punches across vital score.

Top Right: Mad dog blast over for two against GMC.

Right: The Claw tightropes sidelines after reception of a pin point pass from McMinn.

McMinn

Waves Avenge Loss 47-7

The Greenwaves showed their stuff against a helpless Cochran team. In a driving rain the offense could do no wrong. The defense played superb heads-up ball. The Waves just washed Cochran off the field.

Waves Fail To Avenge Last Year's Loss 14-8

Jones Co. pulled a few new tricks out of the bag to set back the Wave for their third and last loss of the year. The whole team gave a great showing but Jones Co. had the breaks.

Right: Posey hauls it in and turns for paydirt.

Below Right: Jeff gains bruising yardage against Mary Persons.

Below Right: Defense stops Jones County short of first down.

Waves Gun G.M.C. In Last Game 34-6

The Wave ended up on a winning note by blasting G.M.C. out of Milledgeville. The temperature was in the low thirties, but it didn't cool the Waves. Our boys finished with a 7-3 record. This was in part due to the leadership of the seniors, but in the largest part due to the great coaching staff.

Right: Boys head out for last day of practice.
Middle Right: Chip cuts corner for crucial first down.
Bottom Right: McMinn dives for six.

B-Team: Undefeated

When this team moves up to the varsity we can expect the winning ways of the Wave to continue. To go undefeated is a great tribute to a team. You have to be up for every game, and give 100% all the time. Never 99. It is also a tremendous accomplishment and credit to the coaches that made the team a team.

Lorraine Kitchens leaves her long hair and voice to Beth Ware – if she'll teach her to dance . . . Terrie Lee leaves nothing, she didn't have anything to spare . . . Cheryl leaves her ability to speak in public to Beth Kinnett . . . I, Richard Maddox, leave all my excess weight to Tim Ellerbee before a gust of wind blows him away . . . Mary Harold leaves her ability to be absent on Monday to Laura Webb, seeing as she is already putting it to good use . . . I, Bill Cooper, leave . . . Tony Shelly leaves his "hearing ability" (Big Ears) to anybody that will take them off his hands . . . Monisa Trice gladly leaves her availability to Candy Dunning . . . Jeff Faircloth leaves his ability to get along with the head coach to future football and basketball players and to our assistant coaches . . . Bobby Evans leaves the Reynolds Highway to anyone who has interests on the other side of the swamp . . . I, Chip McMin, leave to my brother Davy the job of taking care of Debbie until I get back home . . . Ronnie Borum leaves Mr. Mac something he will never part with – a comb . . . James Jackson leaves Mrs. McDougald 12 Playboy Magazines in hopes that it will stir a "new interest" in the library . . . George Goddard leaves his basketball scholarship (which was not accepted) to Don Doles . . . Scott Posey leaves his ability to walk up the study hall steps without falling to Robert Cummings . . . We, the Key Club, leave Mr. Mac "Gladly" . . . Barney Barfield leaves Richard Knight the ability to do math . . . Robin Hickson leaves her parking space in the senior parking lot to anyone getting up at 6:00 . . . Tommy McGhee leaves his ability to get along with others to Harold Morse in hopes that he will get fewer black eyes . . . We the seniors leave our yellow vocabulary books to the juniors so they won't have to look up all those words . . . Buddy Cooper leaves the editorship of the annual and a giant size bottle of excedrin to Tim McCord . . . Jeanne Hays leaves her courage to keep her heart away from the charming Fort Valley boys to Sue Yancy, who has almost made it . . . Julie Posey leaves all the good grades she didn't get from Miss Bell in College algebra to Holly Mullis . . . Mike Scarborough leaves his chemistry book to anyone who wants a 3 year major in it . . . Whit Kirkland leaves the privilege of defending Ga. Tech to Benny Griggs since no one else wants it . . . I, Benny Rowell, leave this school nothing, because it has already taken everything I own . . . I, Randy Bryan, hereby leave Ricky Parks the ability to stay in the swamp as much as possible . . . Alan Batchlor leaves about two feet of height to Paul Clark . . . Clara Turnell leaves her name "buzzard" to the next girl that deserves it . . . Joanne Batchlor leaves her basketball shoes to Karen Forsling in hopes she could use them as a shoe box . . . Steve Luce leaves Mr. McClendon finally . . . Leonard Pender leaves the ability to pass English IV, I wish someone had left it to me . . . Barney Barfield leaves his athletes feet to Ernest Greene . . . Bill Luckie leaves his ability to catch a ride to school to Tim Mathews . . . Madison NeSmith leaves the presidency of DCT to anyone willing to put up with the crazy bunch . . . The Senior basketball players leave the coaches a state championship, the sooner the better . . . Scott Posey leaves his ability to wipe 'em out coming down the hall . . . The Drama class leaves Phillips, Jim a southern accent . . .

WE THE CLASS OF 1970 LEAVE OUR GRATITUDE TO THE FACULTY
BECAUSE THEY MADE US WHAT WE ARE!!!

EDITOR'S EPILOGUE

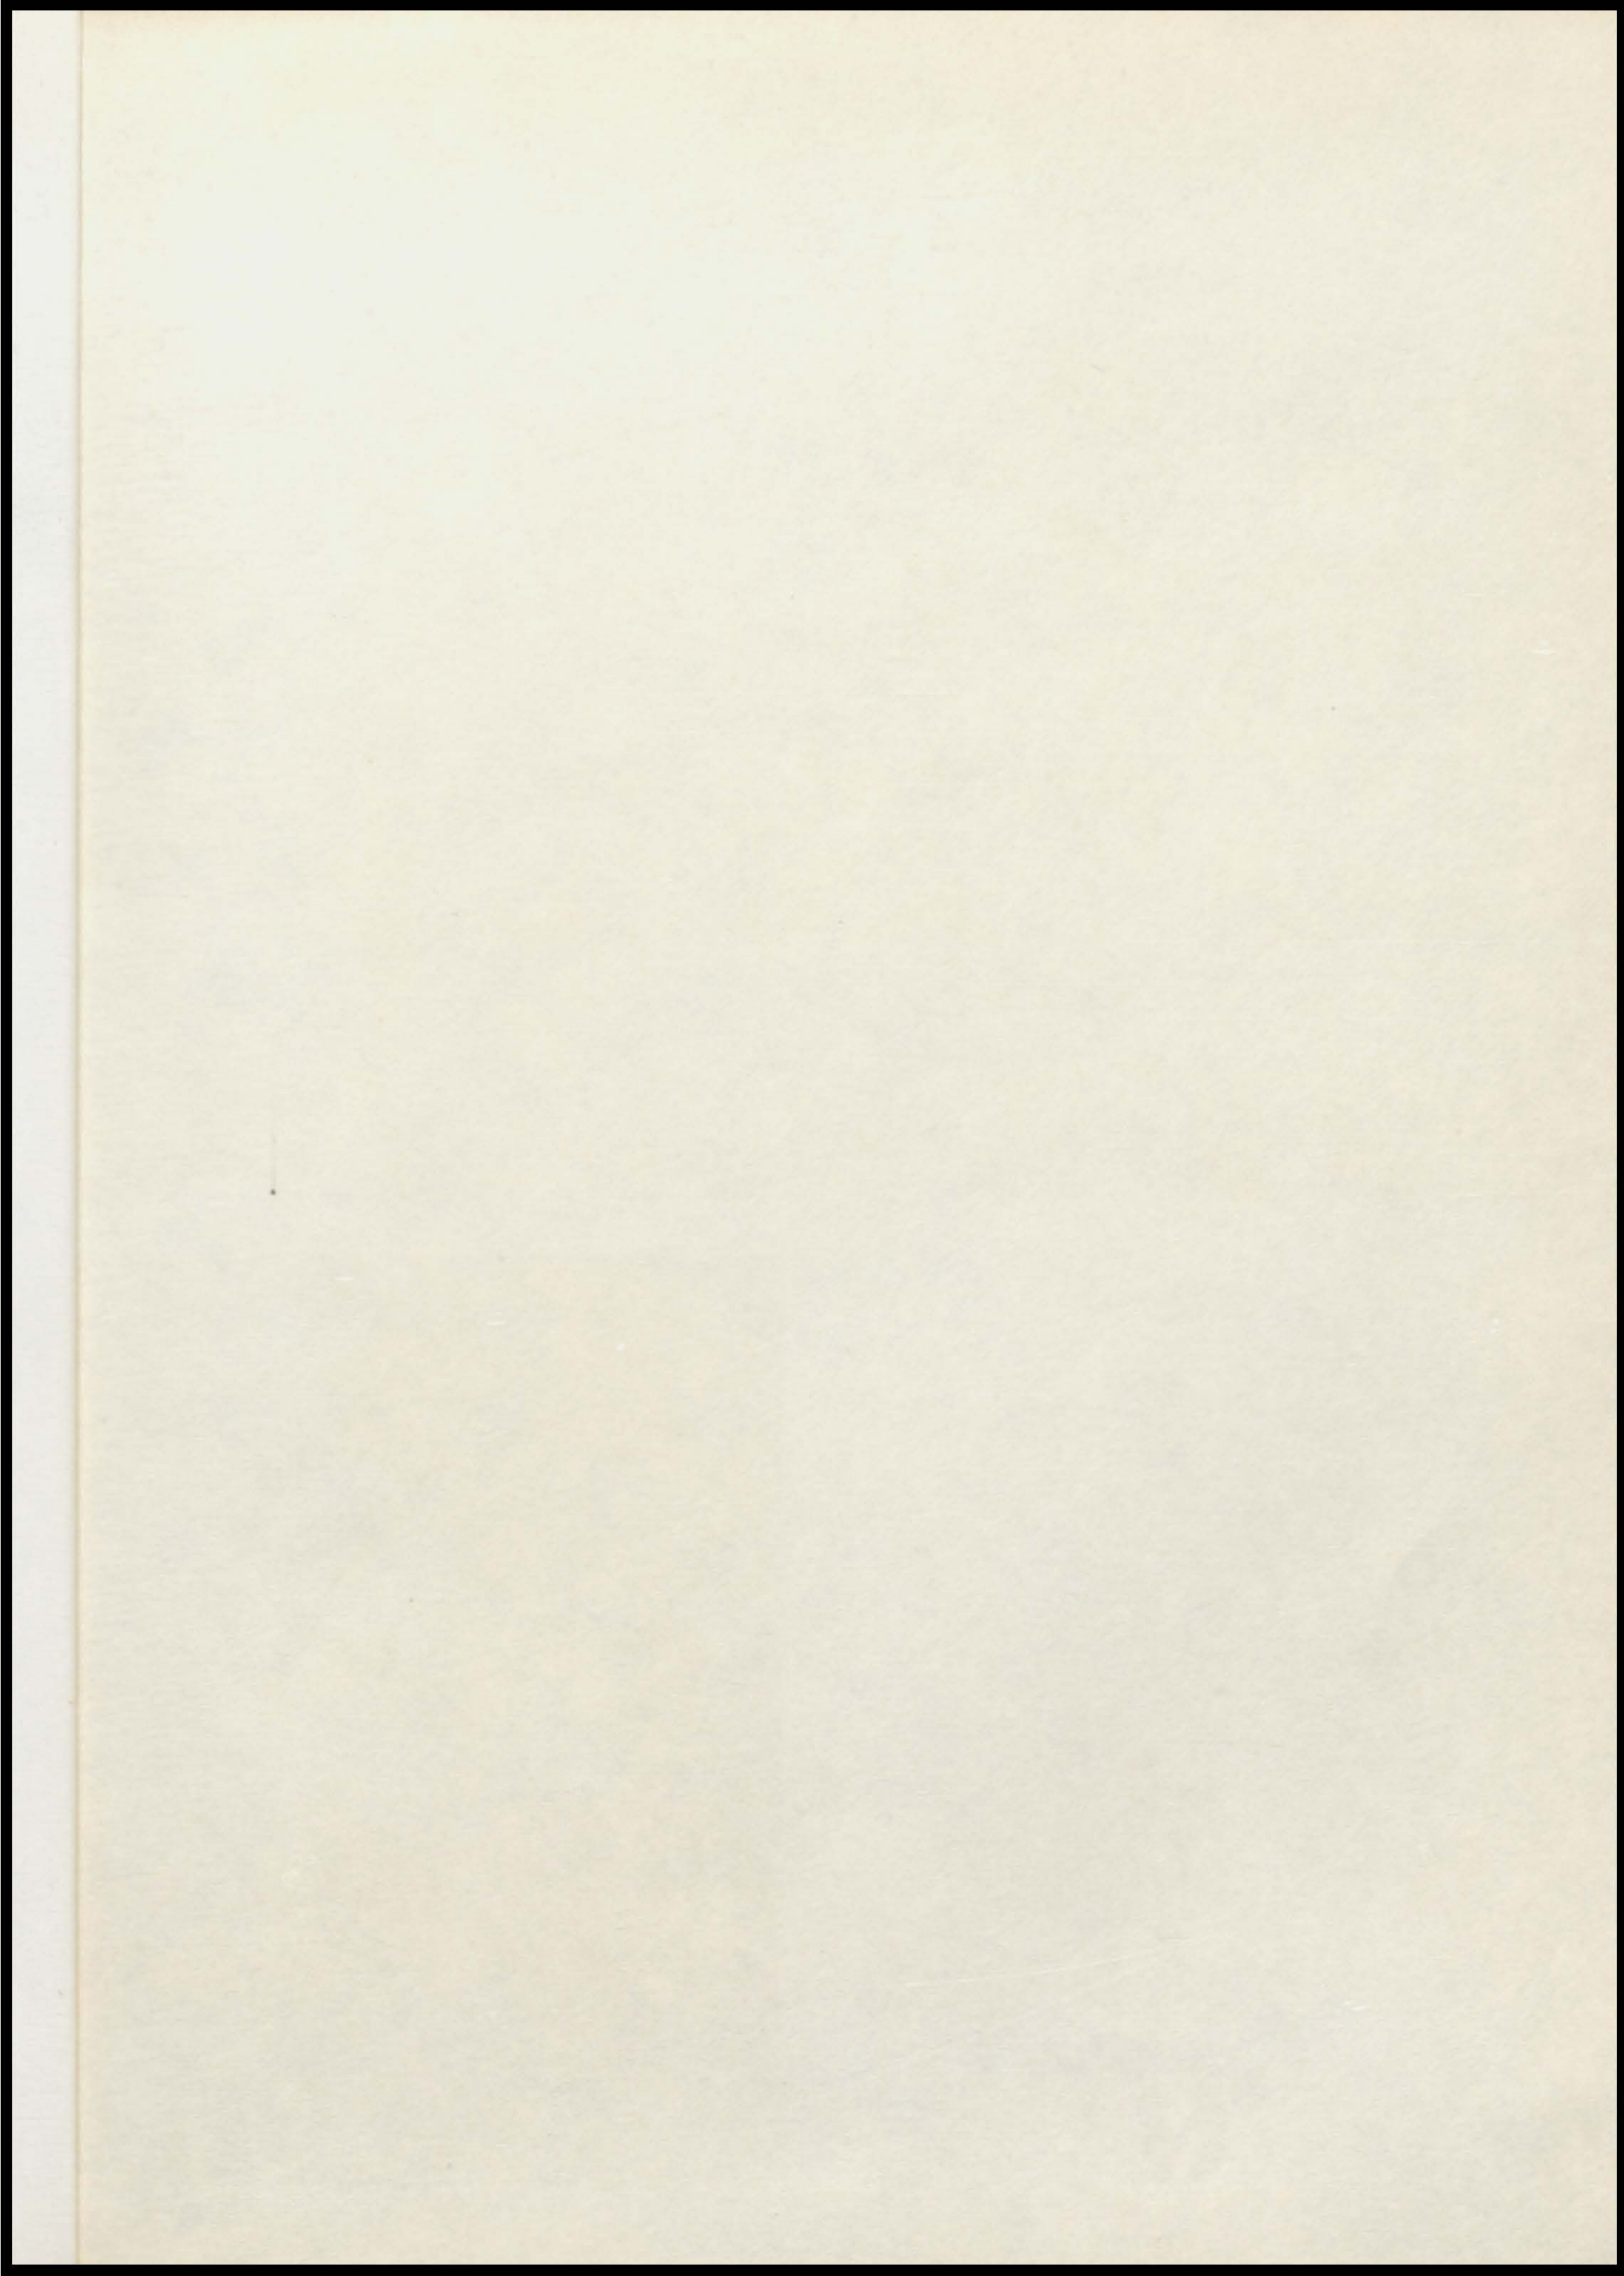

When I accepted the job of transforming the '70 Vallihi from something abstract to something concrete, I did not see the responsibility I was asking for. The responsibility is tremendous, but you have to live with the pressure before you realize how great it is on an editor. Those late night and early morning deadline meetings that drain you completely are just part of it. The job will give you an ulcer, if it does not bury you.

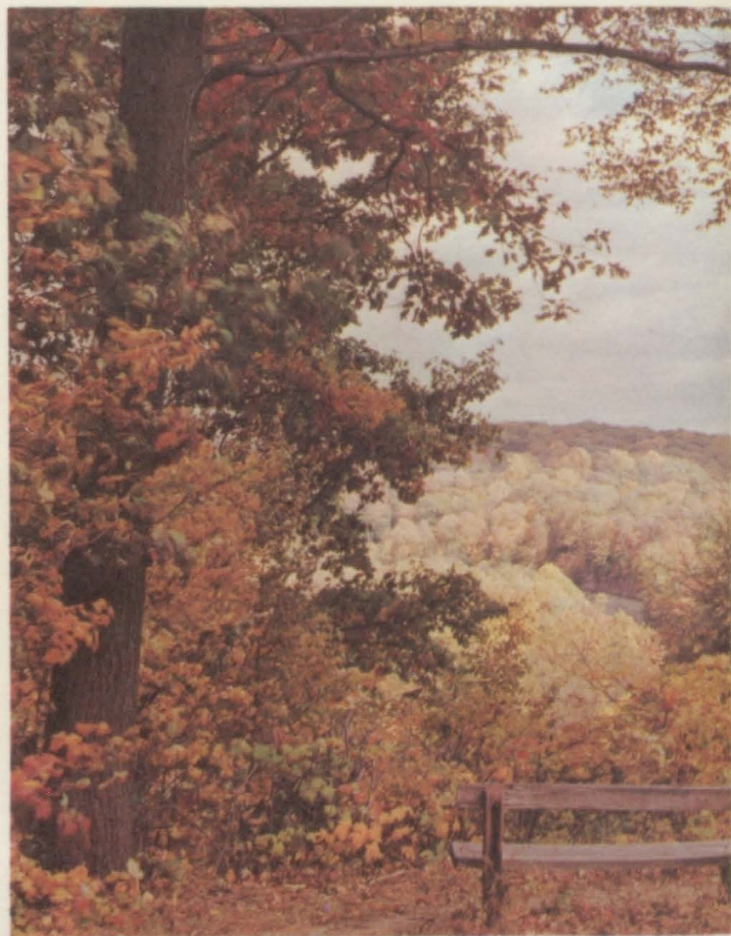

The Yearbook would have never been reality if I had not had a great bunch behind me. First and foremost I want to thank Mr. and Mrs. Shivers for all their help. I have yet to see the dilemma that they could not get me out of. I am really indebted to them. Ike Boyette, Taylor's best, provided invaluable professional help in building our book. He is one of my close friends and golf partner. I want to say a special thanks to Mr. McClendon for putting up with me this year. He knows, more than anyone else, that I am not an organizer or planner. What can you say about the best bunch of boys ever assembled on an annual staff? They really came through when the chips were down. We had our good times and our hectic ones.

We think we have a winner, but we are biased. You are the judge. All we ask is that you do more than count the times your picture appears. We meant for you to get more out of it.

In closing, I hope the Seniors will always be able to recall warm memories of their last year at Fort Valley High School in this, the twenty-first edition of the Vallihi.

Buddy Cooper
